

Boston Red Sox Sunday. With the bases loaded he slapped out a homer.

Poor Walter Johnson. Detroit seems to have his goat. Walter has not copped one single game from Detroit this season on the Detroit grounds. Ty Cobb lit on Johnson for three singles and a two-bagger in four times at bat. Tris Speaker only gathered one hit in Sunday's game. Speaker's lead for batting honors in the American league, however, is beyond the reach of Tyrus.

If there is a city series between the Cubs and Sox, the former will have to battle through it without the services of Larry Doyle. The star second sacker is still hobbling about on crutches and will not be able to get into any more ball games this season. Steve Yerkes, who is playing swell ball right now, will hold down the keystone sack in the event of a city affair.

Police interference was a feature of the Logan Square-Romeo battle in the Sweitzer cup series at Logan Square Sunday. The Logan Squares finally copped at battle 3 to 1 in regular baseball. Spectators stopped the game several times and insisted on settling it with their fists. As a result several belligerents were rushed off to the police station. Police rushed the crowd of bystanders after several bruised heads were handed out. Manager Ryan of the losers filed a protest.

Queen of Angels ball team repeated their last year's win of the title in the National Catholic league. This year's bunting was cinched when the Angels trimmed Holy Family Sunday, 16 to 5.

The Ciceros slid into the finals for the Tearney cup by beating the Galligans, 16 to 6. The Galligans went all to pieces in the fourth inning, when six errors and four hits netted eight runs.

First two heats of the Illinois naval reserves' twelve-oared cutter races were rowed Sunday on the mile course from 12th street to the Chicago Yacht club. The first heat, in which the first, third and fifth divisions took part, was won by the first.

The second heat between the second, fourth and sixth was a cinch for the second. The final heat, which is for the Jackson trophy, will be rowed next Sunday over the same course.

Bricklayers trimmed the Swedish-Americans, 1 to 0, in their Chicago District Soccer league game Sunday. Pullman trimmed the Campbell Rovers, 6 to 0. Joliet, champions of the Chicago District league, trimmed the Corinthians, 2 to 1. The game was played at Joliet.
